GRAFTON DOG OBEDIENCE CLUB INC.

presents a workshop

TRACKING: beyond the basics

with Carole Bryant & Mary Williams

When: Saturday & Sunday, 15th & 16th April 2023 (Sat 7 am – 5 pm, Sun 6.00 am – 11 am)

Where: Carnham Road, Fineflower via Grafton. 2460

Cost: Participants - $100.00 members ($50 repeat member participants); $125 non-members

($65 repeat non-member participants); $50 observers ($25 repeat observers) - includes Saturday morning tea, lunch & afternoon tea, Saturday evening meal, Sunday brunch and notes. All attendees to contribute to communal meals (Mary Williams will coordinate)

Equipment will be available for purchase on the weekend

For more info contact:

Carole Bryant or Mary Williams

Ph: 0428 449326 Ph: 66424301; 0429 992858

- Carole started tracking for fun over 50 years ago; started teaching tracking for fun over 40 years ago; started competing in official tracking trials almost 30 years ago and has helped train many handler & dog teams to trial standard in tracking through Grafton Dog Obedience Club (GDOC). Carole is Chief Instructor of GDOC, is a DogsNSW qualified instructor, Delta Society CGC Instructor and Tellington TTouch practitioner. She has competed in obedience, rally, agility/jumpers, tracking, track & search, herding and endurance with her dogs. Carole has achieved numerous tracking titles with her dogs, including two Tracking Champions and is a licenced Tracking judge.
- Mary started tracking for fun 30 years ago and started competing in official tracking trials 16 years ago.
 Mary is Deputy Chief Instructor of GDOC, is a DogsNSW Instructor and Delta Society CGC Instructor.
 Mary shows her dogs in breed shows and competes with her dogs in obedience, rally, tracking and endurance. Mary shows her dogs in breed shows and competes with her dogs in Obedience, rally, tracking, track and search and endurance. Mary has achieved numerous tracking titles with her dogs including four Tracking Champions.

PROGRAM

TRACKING: BEYOND THE BASICS - Saturday & Sunday, 15th & 16th April, 2023

SATURDAY

Introductions

Theory: skills needed for trialing (TD1 to TD8); articles; turns; cross tracks

Practical: improving indication of articles

Morning tea

Practical: starts; getting accurate turns; the U-shaped track; cross tracks; track finish Theory: terrain; weather; age of track; handling skills; tracklaying & map drawing

Lunch (questions)

Practical: setting out a track (U-shaped track, 2 turns, 3 articles on track, 1 cross track); finalise maps

Afternoon tea (questions)

Demonstration track or finish setting out tracks Evening meal (tall stories around the camp fire)

SUNDAY

JUNDAT
Mock trial: inspection of gear Brunch (wrap up; evaluation Tidy camp site			30 am
cut here			(keep the top portion for your records)
REGISTRATION FO	RM
I would like to attend as a (ple	ease circle or tick):	Participant	Observer
Your name:
Address:
Phone:	Email:
Your dog's name:		Breed:	Age:
What previous tracking exper	ience do you and/or	your dog have?
Do you/your dog have any pa	articular tracking prob	olems you need help	with at this workshop?
Do you have any special nee	ds we need to know	about for this worksh	op (health, dietary, etc)?
Cheques in favour of Grafton	Dog Obedience Clul	b Inc.
If paying by direct deposit:	Account name: BSB: Account number: Reference:	Grafton Dog Obedi 032-537 140309 TW plus your name
Please send registration form	& cheque or direct of	deposit payment deta	ils to:
Tracking Workshop, Grafto or email completed form an			o, Grafton. 2460 carole@berigorafarm.com.au
Direct deposit: date paid:	amou	nt: refe	rence: